

Deutsche Telekom AG launches “Business WiFi”, chooses BSG Wireless and Boingo

Posted on October 13, 2015

October 13, 2015 (San Antonio, TX) – BSG Wireless, a subsidiary of Billing Services Group Limited (‘BSG’), today announced that Deutsche Telekom (‘DT’) has chosen BSG’s Wi-Fi Find and Connect Service and Boingo’s global Wi-Fi Network as main components for DTs new product “Business Wi-Fi”.

The BSG Wireless Find and Connect service allows DT business customers an easy and functional solution to connect to both Boingo and global partner Wi-Fi networks around the world. The service allows end users to seamlessly locate and connect to supported Wi-Fi hotspots, no matter where they are. It includes an intuitive Wi-Fi Finder – usable in map, list and augmented reality views – that leads customers to hotspot locations. Once in range, Find and Connect immediately recognizes the supported network and seamlessly associates and authenticates. Supported platforms, at launch, include iOS, Android, Blackberry, Windows Mobile and Windows Desktop.

"DT is a global wireless leader, and we are delighted they have chosen BSG Wireless to support end users with the Find and Connect Service. We are constantly striving to provide innovative products to help our customers meet their subscriber needs and realize new revenue opportunities" said Richard Scott, CEO - BSG Wireless.
